(LVIIth YEAR.) THE (No. 2860.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1801.

LONDON, September 5.

YESTERDAY a flag of truce arrived at Dover, with diſpatches from the French government for M. Otto.

We received by the ſame conveyance Paris journals to the 1ſt inſtant, which bring no other intelligence than that the Tiers Conſolides fell one and an half on the day preceding.

The activity and regularity of couriers and diſpatches have certainly redoubled ſince the late remonſtrance of Mr. Merry upon the ſtate of the negotiations; and the public opinion ſeems ſtrongly to have adopted the hints which have been ſuggeſted, upon the neceſſity of bringing them to a concluſion. The late events in Egypt, and the Baltic, to the iſſue of which by a tacit convention the relative ſtate of both countries was referred, has removed the pretence of any longer delay and evaſion. What effect they may have produced upon the mind of the chief conſul, we have no means of aſcertaining; but whether we conſider the approaching period of the aſſembling of parliament or the decreaſing length of the days, we cannot entertain any other opinion than that government is determined to procure, without delay, the counter-project of the Thuilleries, or interrupt an unprofitable intercourſe, which may ſoon be attended with great inconvenience and danger. [Times.]

Egypt muſt be fully in our poſſeſſion by this time, and we know of no important ſervice on which an Engliſh fleet has a proſpect of being engaged in thoſe ſeas. Indeed we have reaſon to believe that when Alexandria ſurrenders, a conſiderable part of our naval force will be drawn from the Mediterranean to the Cadiz ſtation. At Gibraltar and Minorca, perhaps, troops may embark, and an expedition ſail againſt ſome part of the continent of South-America. Lord Keith, it is true, is expected home; but he will not leave the Mediterranean till the great ſervice is at an end, and then it is not likely that lord Nelſon will ſucceed him. We believe, on the contrary, that lord Nelſon will continue in his preſent command during the winter, as his ſervices are much more likely to be wanted when the dark weather ſets in than at this time. His lordſhip having ſolicited his preſent ſtation, will not throw it up ſo haſtily. While he is between England and France, the public feel that the danger of invaſion is greatly diminiſhed; and miniſters will be ſenſible that in no part can they place him, where he will be of more uſe to the country. [Morn. Poſt, Aug. 27.]

Every perſon cries out againſt the dilatory proceedings of the negotiators; yet, after all, what is the occaſion for any hurry? The war is at preſent but a war of ſham battles, and it will probably ſoon ſink to that claſs which the prince of Conde denominated guerres de pots de chambre.

From the defenſive preparations on the other ſide of the water, it now appears that the dread of invaſion has blown over.

The late ſon of J. B. Warren, who was killed in Egypt, was not only a brave, but an amiable and affectionate young man. He had ſeveral times been ſent on ſervice, and, whenever he ſailed on any expedition, he ſent a blank letter to his mother, allowing her to conceive feelings which he could not deſcribe.

The preſent miniſters affect great candour, and an earneſt deſire of throwing a veil over all diſtinction of parties.—This ſpirit is not, however, carried into any of the public offices, except the admiralty. Earl St. Vincent, like a true ſeaman, knows no parties but the French and Britiſh, and labours moſt earneſtly and ably to cruſh the one, and exalt the other. His thoughts are wholly occupied in promoting the welfare and glory of our navy, not in diſcovering the politics of officers, that he may blaſt the hopes, whatever may be the merits, of thoſe who differ in opinion from the Premier; not in diſtributing places and employments among the voters at rotten boroughs, in preference to men of merit and juſt claims; not in making the navy ſubſervient to parliamentary intereſt. What muſt have been the indignation of a man of ſuch generous and independent principles, on finding, as we are aſſured he has done, among the papers of his office, a memorandum, written by one of his predeceſſors, "Never to employ admiral Gambier, becauſe he voted for Mr. Fox, at a Weſtminſter election." [Morn. Poſt.]

It probably contributes to the ill-humour of the firſt conſul for the loſs of Egypt, that that army muſt now return to France which expreſſed ſo much reſentment againſt him for deſerting it. It will ſurpriſe no one, if ſome of its leaders ſhould find their way to Cayenne without a trial, like the turbulent citizens of Guadaloupe. [The Times.]

The baniſhment of the planters from Guadaloupe, without even the form of a trial, at the bidding of the conſul, would diſgrace the government of Tunis or Morocco. That ſuch deſpotiſm ſhould be tolerated in a republic, confuſes all terms and ideas. As no nation ever ſo much abuſed liberty as the French, while they had it, none is more humiliated by the yoke it endures. Republican names and forms only add inſult and bitterneſs to the unqualified tyranny of the conſular conſtitution. [Ibid.]

SALEM, October 20.

From the Red Sea.

On Saturday laſt arrived the ſhip Recovery, capt. Luther Dana, (belonging to col. Derby) in 118 days from Mocha at the mouth of the Red Sea, with a cargo of the highly eſteemed coffee of Yemen, being the firſt importation of the kind to this country that we have heard of.

Capt. Dana has favoured us with the following particulars reſpecting the Britiſh expedition to the Red Sea:—

"Major-general Baird arrived at Mocha from Bombay in May laſt; with a number of tranſports, having on board a large detachment of India troops, bound to Suez to join col. Murray's detachment, which had preceded him, and was already at that place, and in conjunction with the forces of the grand vizier, to form an expedition againſt the French army of Egypt, which was reported to have collected and fortified themſelves at Grand Cairo.

"Admiral Blanket is commander in chief of the naval forces in the Red Sea.

In May and June ſeveral Engliſh veſſels from different ſettlements in India, having on board troops and warlike ſtores, touched at Mocha on their way to Suez to join the expedition, and as faſt as they received ſupplies of water, &c. departed, there being no armed veſſels to annoy them on their paſſage.

"Sir Home Popham, in the Romney, with part of a ſquadron, arrived at Mocha from England, which he left in December laſt.—Touching at the Cape of Good Hope, he took on board the Britiſh 61ſt regiment, and arrived at Mocha in May. After landing his ſick, and receiving a ſupply of water, proceeded towards Suez. The other ſhips of his ſquadron, conſiſting chiefly of tranſports, were daily arriving, and leaving Mocha for Suez as faſt as they could get furniſhed with ſupplies of water and refreſhments; and when captain Dana ſailed (June 22) all the ſhips had paſſed which were expected for Suez. But it is not probable that gen. Baird, with the main body of the forces, got forward in time to co-operate in the reduction of Cairo.

"There were various conjectures as to the number of troops in Engliſh pay, but generally ſuppoſed to be twelve or fourteen thouſand. The naval force conſiſted moſtly of light ſhips of war, the Red Sea being of dangerous navigation.

"The laſt year the Engliſh took poſſeſſion of Mehum Iſland in the Straits of Babel Mandel, and made conſiderable progreſs in fortifying it, but were obliged to relinquiſh it and withdraw the garriſon, for want of freſh water. They have ſince taken poſſeſſion of and eſtabliſhed a port on the iſland of Geobel-tor, about 60 leagues north-weſt of Mocha.

"James Pringle, Eſq; envoy from the Engliſh E. I. company to the king of Senna, ſet out from Mocha in May laſt with his ſuite, having in charge, preſents to a large amount for the king of Senna and his chief officers.

"The Engliſh to ſecure the friendſhip of the Arabs, have beſtowed preſents very liberally among the Dolas or governors on the coaſts of the Arabian Gulph and Red Sea. The following is a liſt of ſome of the preſents made by the Eaſt-India company to the king of Senna and ſome of his chief men in 1801.

To the king,	10,000 Rupees,
His ſon,	2,500
His vizier,	2,000
Dolu of Mocha,	3,500
Dolu of Aden,	4,000
Their chief ſecretaries	500
	22,500

BOSTON, October 24.

We have ſeen a letter from Cronſtadt, Ruſſia, dated Auguſt 28, which mentions, that active preparations for war were making at that port; and that the emperor had juſt prohibited the exportation of timber, deals, &c. to England. In a London paper of September 1, we find the following article, which may ſerve as explanatory of the above:—

A letter from Peterſburg, dated July 23, ſays—"The admiralty have not yet come to any determination relative to the Deal buſineſs; and although ſeveral ſhips are watering, we have not yet been able to obtain permiſſion to load off the quantity remaining from laſt year, even with an allowance to them of one fifth part."

IMPROVEMENTS.

Several ſheets of ſheet copper produced at the manufactory of colonel Paul Revere and Son, at Stoughton, were yeſterday lodged at the inſurance-offices in this town. At a very great expence thoſe ingenious gentlemen have erected works, where copper for ſheathing ſhips, cold rolled, is produced; which has been pronounced by the beſt judges equal to any manufactured in Great-Britain. The frigate Boſton was bolted and ſpiked with bolts and ſpikes from this manufactory, cold planiſhed, from maleable copper, and equal to European. Every friend to the manufactures of the United States muſt be pleaſed with this information.

NEW-YORK, October 29.

The mayor having collected the opinions of eighteen phyſicians of moſt extenſive practice in the city has the ſatisfaction of announcing, that they all agree in declaring, the late alarm to have been infinitely greater than the danger would warrant—moſt of them aſſerting, that no diſorder has prevailed but the uſual autumnal fever—none pronouncing it to be infectious—and all but three, uniting in the opinion, that ſuch of the citizens as have removed, may with ſafety return.

This together with the official advice which he has received from Philadelphia, of the renewal of the intercourſe between the two cities, affords the mayor an opportunity of congratulating his fellow-citizens on the return of a ſtate of things, which he is warranted in believing, nothing but an unreaſonable panic has interrupted.

Mayor's-office, N. York, October 28.

Extract of a letter from the preſident of the board of health of Philadelphia, to the mayor of New-York, dated 27th October, 1801.—

"I congratulate you on the favourable change, and have now the ſatisfaction to inform you, that at our meeting laſt evening, the board agreed unanimouſly to take off the reſtrictions on the intercourſe, and ſincerely hope a ſimilar occaſion will never again occur, and that our reſpective cities will long enjoy uninterrupted health and proſperity. It will give me pleaſure to learn that the fever has entirely ſubſided, and trade reſumed its regular channel."

By the Henry.—Extract of a letter from a mercantile houſe in Liſbon, dated the 14*th of September, to a merchant in this city.*—

"The uncommon fall of grain in England aided by our abundant crops of Indian corn, has conſiderably lowered the price of this article as well as of wheat. Flour is ſtill worth 19 dollars per barrel, but we expect it will ſhortly go down. The articles of American produce which remain in briſk demand, are, rice, fiſh, beef and pork. We conſider, however, moſt of our preſent articles are like to vary a good deal before this reaches you, ſo that a quotation would be of little uſe.

"As to public affairs, there is nothing new, except the publication of our treaty with Spain, the ſecond article of which expreſsly ſtipulates, that the ports of Portugal ſhall be ſhut to all Britiſh ſhips whatever.

"Cadiz and St. Lucar are again cloſely blockaded, and no veſſel is allowed to go either in or out without ſpecial permiſſion from the Britiſh admiral, who is cruiſing off with 15 ſail of the line and three frigates!"

A Jamaica paper of the 12th ultimo, received at this office by the brig Integrity, has the following article:—

"During the laſt cruiſe of his Britannic majeſty's ſhip Bourdelais, on the coaſt of Porto-Rico, a Spaniard came on board, begging protection, as he had that morning murdered his officer. Captain Manby, with indignation, heard his ſtory, and inſtantly had him tied hand and foot. Captain M. then proceeded to the bay of Aquadilla, and ſent his firſt lieutenant on ſhore to the governor with the aſſaſſin, and this laconic epiſtle:—

"SIR,

"The Britiſh colours diſdain to protect a murderer. I ſend you one, and hope he will meet the fate he merits.

I am, &c.

THOMAS MANBY.

Captain of his Britannic majeſty's ſhip Bourdelais."

"The governor was ſo pleaſed with this act of Britiſh generoſity, that he returned an anſwer teeming with admiration of captain Manby's conduct, and ſent him a large ſupply of fruit and vegetables."

A line of telegraphes is forming in the ſtate of Maſſachuſetts, to extend from Martha's Vineyard to Boſton. It is completed as far as Cohaſſet. On the morning of yeſterday ſe'nnight, the arrival of the ſhip Mercury at the Vineyard, from Sumatra, was very expeditiouſly and correctly communicated, paſſing thro' eleven different telegraphes.

PHILADELPHIA, October 28.

A letter from the mate of an American veſſel, dated Barcelona, Auguſt 3, to his friend in Boſton, ſays, "Every countenance looks ſmiling; this morning the Americans warped into the Road, and in a few days will ſail, ſome bound to one port, and ſome another, and all out of the Straits.

"Judge what a pleaſing ſight it was to us, after being three months and upwards blocked up here by the ferocious Tripolitans, to ſee our country's flag unfurled for our protection.

"Down with all thoſe who are inimical to the naval eſtabliſhment, for they are no friends to their country; or conceive its whole life and honour is founded on a quite different baſis from what it really is. A navy is the only means we have of commanding any reſpect among the nations. The three ſhips only, which are in thoſe ſeas, have deſtroyed all the power of the Tripolitans. One blockades their admiral with the two largeſt of their ſhips, in Gibraltar—a ſecond their port, and the third gives us convoy. We have now nothing to fear from them; and I hope the government of the United States will in future pay their tributes to all nations in powder and balls; for it is the ſureſt way of keeping peace, and I think the cheapeſt way in the end."

October 30.

We have lately drawn the attention of our readers to ſeveral unprovoked and unjuſtifiable enormities committed by the Spaniards upon our defenceleſs citizens. In addition to theſe we have this day to announce a ſpecies of aggreſſion diſgraceful to humanity, and which, we truſt, will not fail immediately to excite the attention of thoſe whoſe duty it is to protect our citizens in foreign ports. It is communicated in a letter from New-Orleans, dated September 6, 1801, to a gentleman in this city, viz.

"I cannot avoid acquainting you with a circumſtance which, in my opinion, merits the attention of your government. A few days ago, the Cabildo, or counſil, of this city, petitioned the governor, at the requeſt of the French and Spaniſh phyſicians, to prevent two Americans from practiſing here—one of them is doctor Zerban, a young gentleman of great ſkill, who has for ten years paſt practiſed with the greateſt ſucceſs and approbation in this place; the other is a young gentleman from Virginia, of the name of Flood, of equal talents, but has not had more than two or three years experience in this place. The governor has thought proper to forbid their attending the ſick; and furthermore, orders that all who do not ſend for the French and Spaniſh phyſicians, be ſent to the hoſpital—a place from whence, I believe, not one American or Engliſhman out of hundreds, who have been forced by neceſſity to take refuge there, have come out alive. Doctors Zerban and Flood ſtill continue to aſſiſt their countrymen in a clandeſtine manner; but we fear ſome deſperate meaſures may be taken to prevent them, which will be attended with the moſt diſtreſſing conſequences to the poor American ſtrangers here, who receive no kind of hoſpitality nor attention from the people; and I dare venture to ſay, that of the poorer claſs of Americans who come here at this ſeaſon, out of an hundred, there will not eſcape ten. The French and Spaniards independent of their antipathy and diſlike to us, and the want of medical knowledge in the moſt of them, have not the faculty of converſing with a ſtranger, and therefore do not acquire ſo perfect a knowledge of the ſituation of their patient, as though they underſtood him; nor are they ſo attentive, which is a great point in a diſeaſe like the preſent prevailing yellow fever.

GIDEON WHITE,
HAS RECEIVED, AND FOR SALE,
From LEE's and Co. Patent and Family medicine store, Baltimore.

A freſh ſupply of the following valuable medicines:

HAMILTON's WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Four years have ſcarcely elapſed ſince the introduction of HAMILTON's WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES into general uſe, yet in this ſhort period upwards of one hundred and twenty thouſand perſons of both ſexes, of every age, and in every ſituation have received benefit from this extraordinary remedy, in various complaints ariſing from worms, and from obſtructions in the ſtomach and bowels.

This medicine, which is as innocent and mild, as it is certain and efficacious in its operation, cannot injure the youngeſt infant, or the moſt delicate pregnant lady, ſhould no worms exiſt in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanſe the ſtomach and bowels, removing whatever is foul or offenſive within, particularly that ſlimy humour from whence worms and many fatal diſorders proceed.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerneſs; having a pleaſing appearance, and an agreeable taſte.

A doſe of this medicine given occaſionally will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children, a dreadful diſorder which annually deſtroys thouſands of the infant part of our cities. It is likewiſe the mildeſt and moſt certain remedy known, and has reſtored to health and ſtrength a great number when in an advanced ſtage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain inſtructions are given for every part of the neceſſary treatment in ſuch caſes.

The celebrity acquired by the Worm Lozenges, particularly in the ſtate of Maryland, renders the further publication of certificates in their favour, an unneceſſary expence.

HAMILTON's
ESSENSE AND EXTRACT OF MUSTARD,

A ſafe and effectual remedy for the rheumatiſms, gout, palſey, ſprains and bruiſes, white ſwellings, old ſtrains and relaxations, numbneſs and weakneſs of the joints, ſtiffneſs of the neck, pains of the ſide, headache, ſwelled faces, frozen limbs, and every ſimilar complaint. It prevents chilblains, or chopped hands, and the ill effects of getting wet and damp in the feet.

The extract is celebrated for removing cold and windy complaints in the ſtomach and bowels, flying pains and other ſpaſmodic affections.

The teſtimony of thouſands and daily experience, ſufficiently prove the ſuperiority of the above medicine over all others in the cure of the maladies we have enumerated.

HAMILTON's ELIXIR.

A ſovereign remedy for colds, obſtinate coughs, aſthmas, catarrhs, ſore throats and approaching conſumptions.

To parents who may have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this diſcovery is of the firſt magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progreſs and in a ſhort time entirely removes the moſt cruel diſorder to which children are liable; the Elixir is perfectly agreeable and the doſe ſo ſmall, that no difficulty ariſes in taking it.

Dr. HAMILTON's
GRAND RESTOTATIVE

IS recommended as an invaluable medicine, for the ſpeedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints which reſult from diſſipated pleaſures—juvenile indiſcretions—reſidence in climates unfavourable to the conſtitution—the immoderate uſe of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other deſtructive intemperance—the unſkilful or exceſſive uſe of mercury—the diſeaſes peculiar to females, at a certain period of life—bad layings in, &c. &c.

THE PERSIAN LOTION,
So celebrated amongst the faſhionable throughout Europe,

The Perſian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding that natural, inſenſible perſpiration which is eſſential to the health—Yet its ſalutary effects are ſpeedy and permanent, rendering the ſkin delicately ſoft and ſmooth, improving the complexion and reſtoring the bloom of youth. Extract of a letter from Dr. Henry C. Soper.

" Kent county, Delaware.

" I have given the ague drops to a number of patients this fall, and with conſtant ſucceſs; in ſome obſtinate caſes they acted like a charm; the diſeaſe yielding in a day or two to this remedy, after reſiſting the bark for months, and when they had been thrown in, in the largeſt doſes."
